

International Business Examinations

Bachelor Students:

There will be an examination every semester!

Everyone can write each examination!

Diplom Students:

Since the courses are ending at the end of this academic year, there will be one examination for every student that has failed the last official examination.

This service will be offered for ALL my classes in the elective subject 'International Management'.