

Call for papers

4th WORKSHOP

EXPERIMENTAL ECONOMICS FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

25.-26.2.2019, University of Münster

The workshop is aimed at young researchers (PhD students, Postdocs, junior professors). Experimental contributions (experimental protocol, preliminary experimental results, or finished paper) from all fields of environmental and resource economics are welcome. The presentation of on-going work is welcomed.

Language: Workshop language is English.

Workshop fees: There are no workshop fees. Travel and accommodation costs are to be covered by the participants themselves.

Dates: Submit by Monday, 31st of December 2018, in the form of a meaningful abstract of max. 1 page outlining the question, method, (current) advancement of the work and (expected) results. The abstract should contain the title of the contribution as well as the name of the presenter. It should be sent in PDF format by email to chair.energy@wiwi.uni-muenster.de.

By Friday, 25th of January 2019, the submitter(s) will be informed whether their contribution to the workshop presentation has been accepted. Binding registration for the workshop must be made by Friday, 1st of February 2019.

Organizer: University of Münster, School of Business and Economics, Chair of Microeconomics esp. Energy and Resource Economics (Prof. Dr. Andreas Löschel)

Contact: For further questions please contact Gerald Zunker via chair.energy@wiwi.uni-muenster.de