

Apply for the International Helsinki Days 2022 Seminar week!

International Helsinki Days (IHD) is a seminar week organised for the 35th time 6-13.2.2022 by the Student Union of Hanken School of Economics. Every year approximately 40 students from all around the world take part in the IHD seminar. The whole week is filled with interesting lectures, company visits and a look into the Finnish student life. At the same time, we create new friendships and become one big family! There is no participation fee for the attendees and all the costs are covered by IHD and their sponsors.

Applications to the International Helsinki Days 2022 seminar will be sent by email to ihdapplications@shs.fi by the 12th of December 2021, after which we will carefully consider all applications. Feel free to be creative (you can e.g. include a résumé, video clips, pictures or links to social media accounts in your application). We still want you to AT LEAST provide the following information for your application to be accepted:

- Full name
- Gender
- Date of birth
- Nationality
- Telephone number
- University and major
- Year of graduation
- Allergies
- T-shirt size
- Contact person in case of emergency
- Contact person's telephone number
- Do you have travel insurance?
- Did you visit Finland before you started studying here?
- Two of your favorite things to do in your free time
- Describe Finland in three words
- What is your interest towards Finland?

And most importantly:

- A picture and a description of yourself
- Why should YOU be selected for the seminar?
- What are your expectations for the IHD week?

This information is used to screen the applicants and make the necessary preparations for the week. Unfortunately, we can only accept a limited number of participants to the seminar - so be quick and apply today!

If you have any questions about the International Helsinki Days 2022 seminar or the application process, feel free to contact our International Coordinators.
