BearingPoint®

Think outside the box

You are students at a University or Business School in Germany, Switzerland, Austria or Romania have a creative and sustainable digital project idea have or are building a team with colleagues and friends to realize this idea could use general and consulting support.

We are an independent, partner-led management and technology consultancy want to foster entrepreneurial thinking and action amongst students have a team of highly committed consultants with a pragmatic as well as innovative mindset want to support you!

Together we can turn your ideas into reality!
