

How can I get insights into consulting and the fascinating new energy
world?

Look behind the scenes and be part of the E.ON Inhouse Consulting „Customer Journey“ workshop!

You will have the chance to advise the Chief Marketing Officer on improving E.ON's customer experience. Work on a real-life customer journey case and derive solutions based on E.ON customer testimonials. Take the opportunity to meet our team on campus and learn more about E.ON Inhouse Consulting and your individual career opportunities with us.
