

Excellence Program of the Finance Center Münster

Overview

Jniversität

Münster

Focus on "Top" Students

Prerequisites:

- Master students:
 - o Major Finance
- Bachelor students:
 - $\circ~$ As of 4^{th} semester
 - Excellent performance in at least one finance module
- Above-average academic performance
- Volunteer work alongside studies

Unique Characteristics

- Attractive business partners from all finance fields
- Subject-specific focus: Program is targeted at selected students
 - Difference to e.g. Career
 Perspectives or KAP.WWU
- Several scholarships ("Deutschlandstipendium")
 exclusively for members of Finest in Finance

Paul Hark, M.Sc.

- E-Mail: finestinfinance
 @wiwi.uni-muenster.de
- Phone: +49 251 83-29924

Key elements

Universität

Münster

- Business visits
- Case studies
- Lectures
- Excursions
- Networking events

→ On average eight events per year

2. Training

- Workshops and guest lectures by experts on topics such as
 - \circ Personality
 - development
 - Presentation training
- Insight into the possibilities of an academic career
- → On average two events per year

3. Community

 \circ_{\circ}°

- Voluntary teaching of pupils
- Organization and realization of events
 - Charity events
 - Sports tournaments
 - Barbecues
 - Network meetings

→ On average two events per year

Key elements

2. Training

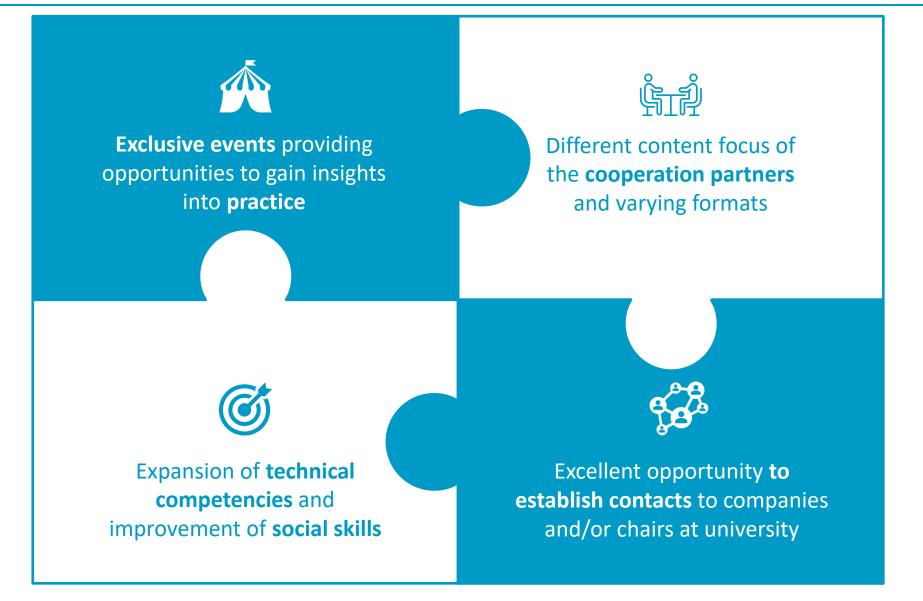

Finest in Finance Summer term 2024

Business Partners

Jniversität

Münster

Beyond the program

The Finance Class e.V.:

- Association spun off from the program in 2018 and is now active in five cities
- Students aid the financial literacy of pupils
 - Topics: Investing, retirement planning, insurance, taxes, debt, etc.
- More information available at: https://thefinanceclass.org/

International internship:

- Credit Research Initiative at the Asian Institute of Digital Finance (AIDF)
 - Part of the National University of Singapore
- Exclusive internship for one to two program participants
 - Minimum duration: five to six months
 - Preparation of credit ratings according to the latest scientific methods
 - Advising large international organizations as well as different central banks on various aspects of (credit) risk management

Target size:

- Approximately 50 members
- Each semester, approximately 10 students from the business administration master's program with a major in Finance and approximately 5 students from the bachelor's programs in business administration, economics and business informatics are admitted

Criteria:

 Letter of motivation (max. 1 page), which also addresses the applicant's (planned) volunteer work

8

- Grades (not the only deciding factor)
- Engagement and activities beyond studies (e.g., volunteer work)
- Personal impression in a selection interview

There is no legal claim to admission!

Münster

Application

